The last complete set of addresses was published in September, 1907, but the number of corrections required has been appalling, and only to-day another change has come indirectly to the Editor's knowledge.

Perhaps students do not realize the want of courtesy shown to their officials—Treasurer, Editor, &c.—and the amount of work entailed by the omission of a post card notification of any change of address. It would be impossible to publish a list at all if it were not for the kindness of other P.N.E.U. officials, who supply missing names and addresses.

Such a state of things is no credit to our Association, and is a continual source of worry and vexation, to say nothing of the natural resentment caused by that casual rudeness which distinguishes a good many young people of to-day, but from which House of Education Students should be free.

We must therefore once more request that every student will send to the Editor, before Lady Day, a post card notifying her whereabouts, and indicating any probable change in the immediate future; that by Easter an accurate and complete list may be ready for publication, and prove a real guide for those who are kindly attempting to arrange district meetings, &c.
